

Data analysis plan

Research question	Paradigm to anchor methodology	Sampling	Collection & guide development	Questions/probes	Analysis	Coding	Quality
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How do primary healthcare providers define body image generally? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How is positive body image defined? ○ How is negative body image defined? • How do primary healthcare providers understand the concept of body image as it relates to their patients? • How is care for body concerns supported in primary care? 	First author's pragmatic framework; second author's constructivist framework	Purposive sampling	1-on-1 interviews; guide was adapted based on previous interview guides	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you think body image is? • What do you think having a positive body image means? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How do you recognize a patient with a positive body image in your practice? • What do you think having a negative body image means? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How do you recognize a patient with a negative body image in your practice? • What is your own experience with body image? • How do you see body image impacting your patients' lives? • Describe your process when a patient discloses they have negative body image. • Describe a specific time a patient disclosed body image concerns and tell me about your response. • What training is in place to prepare clinicians/health care professionals for patients seeking body image resources/help? • What type of clinical pathway exists for patients who may struggle with body image? 	Latent thematic analysis (reflexive)	Inductive	Credibility was upheld by using purposive sampling Authenticity - use participants' own words displayed as direct quotations in the results. Trustworthiness - through triangulation of data sources (e.g., interviews and detailed meeting notes) and multiple analysts (first, second, third, and fifth authors, at varying stages)